The third system of the musical score. It concludes the vocal and piano parts. The vocal parts end with a fermata over the final note. The piano accompaniment features a mezzo-forte dynamic and ends with a final chord. The lyrics conclude with '- ing — of e - ter - nal rest!'.

JESUS LOVER OF MY SOUL

DUET FOR SOPRANO AND ALTO

EDUARD LASSEN
Arranged by L. Kessler

Slowly, with tenderness

PIANO

The musical score is written in E-flat major (three flats) and common time (C). It begins with a piano introduction marked 'p' (piano) and 'Slowly, with tenderness'. The piano part features a flowing melody in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics 'Je - sus lov - er of my soul,'. The Soprano and Alto parts are written in a duet style, with the Soprano part generally higher in pitch than the Alto part. The piano accompaniment continues throughout the vocal phrases, providing harmonic support. The lyrics are: 'Let me to thy bos - om fly; While the bil lows near me roll,'. The score concludes with a final piano flourish.

Je - sus lov - er of my soul,

Je - sus lov - er of my soul,

Let me to thy bos - om fly; While the bil lows near me roll,

O re - ceive my soul at last, Safe in - to the ha - ven

The first system of the musical score consists of two vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal staves are in treble clef with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The lyrics are "O re - ceive my soul at last, Safe in - to the ha - ven". The piano accompaniment is in bass clef and features a steady eighth-note pattern in the left hand and chords in the right hand.

guide: O re - ceive my soul at last!

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal and piano parts. The vocal staves have the lyrics "guide: O re - ceive my soul at last!". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic and harmonic patterns as the first system.

The third system of the musical score shows the vocal staves with whole rests, indicating a pause in the vocal lines. The piano accompaniment continues with its eighth-note pattern and chords.

I SAW A GOLDEN SUNBEAM FALL

HENRY LESLIE

Andante sostenuto

PIANO

The musical score is written for piano and voice. The piano part begins with a treble and bass clef, key signature of one flat (B-flat), and common time (C). The tempo is marked 'Andante sostenuto'. The piano introduction features a series of chords and moving lines in both hands, with trills (tr) indicated in the bass line. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics 'I saw a golden sunbeam fall, So'. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady, flowing melody. The lyrics 'beauti-ful and bright, Me-thought it had es-cap'd from Hea-ven,' are repeated for both the Soprano and Alto parts. The piano part provides a harmonic foundation for the vocal duet.
